LET'S CELEBRATE SPRING!

Solve the riddles and search for the items!

I can be found on the streets after it rains, I'm bigger than a droplet but smaller than a pond and if you jump in me you'll get splashed. What am I?

.....

I'm pretty but a weed. I can flower to be yellow or grey. Make a wish as you blow me away. What am I?

.....

Up high in the trees, away from harm is a home made of twigs, a place mum's shelter their young.

.....

I light up your day and hide at night. I rise at dawn and sleep at dusk. Look up and you'll see my rays shining down on you!

.....

I am an insect and I live underground. I travel with friends and like to pick up crumbs. What am I?

.....

I flitter, I flutter, with wings of vibrant colour. Sometimes in your tummy I fly when you're nervous or shy.

.....

I have scales but I do not swim, I fall from a tree but I'm not a leaf, I'm a fruit but you can't eat me. What am I?

.....

I can walk, I can fly, I can swim. I sound like your dogs squeaky toy.

.....

There are workers, there are queens. Small creatures the size of beans. They buzz, flapping wings but don't get too close or they'll sting.

.....

Two wheels and a handle, made out of metal and powered by your pedal.

.....

A slow moving creature, that leaves a trail. Watch your step or you'll hear a squelch!

.....

What grows wild below trees, looks like an umbrella and is home to lots of special fairy folk.
